Total marks — 20

Choose ONE scenario on page 02 and write your answer clearly, in German, in the space provided in this booklet. You must clearly identify the scenario number you are attempting.

You may use a German dictionary.

Additional space for answers is provided at the end of this booklet.

Use blue or black ink.

There is a separate answer booklet for Reading. You must complete your answers for Reading in the answer booklet for Reading.

Before leaving the examination room you must give this Directed Writing question and your Reading answer booklet to the Invigilator; if you do not, you may lose all the marks for this paper.

Choose one of the following two scenarios.

SCENARIO 1: Society

You recently visited a town in Germany with your friends. On your return, you were asked to write in German about your trip for the languages section of your school/college website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- how you travelled and what the accommodation was like
- what you did during your stay
- how well you got on with your friends
- what you thought about the town you visited
- what souvenir(s) you bought
- where you will go on your next holiday.

You should write approximately 150–180 words.

OR

SCENARIO 2: Learning

You recently came back from Germany where you spent two weeks on a language course. You have been asked to write a report in German for your school/college website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- how you travelled and what you did during the journey
- what your accommodation was like
- how you got on with the other students
- what activities you did in the evening
- what you thought of the food you tried
- if you would recommend a language course in Germany to other people.

You should write approximately 150–180 words.
